SMALL TOWN BOY,
& I FEEL LOVE.

Jimmy Somerville first shot to fame back in 1984 with groundbreaking band Bronski Beat. Their debut single 'Smalltown Boy' made the top three in Britain and was a huge hit all over Europe. It not only introduced the world to Jimmy's unique talent, but confronted them with a lyric addressing the isolation and rejection felt by a provincial gay youth forced into leaving town.

The chart friendly early 80's electronic dance sound and the every day honesty of Jimmy made 'Smalltown Boy' the biggest obviously gay record there'd ever been. Since then he has had a stream of hits such as 'Why', 'Don't Leave Me This Way' and 'I Feel Love'.

More recently Jimmy has collaborated with producers and DJ's including Paul Mac, Todd Terry, Armand Van Helden and Mauro Picotto.

EVOLVE will feature many of Jimmy's Bronski Beat, Communards and solo hit singles. In a world first for Sydney the show will also feature an acoustic set of his music and a selection of songs accompanied by the Sydney Gay and Lesbian Choir.

Your singular guest host for the evening will be Prince of polyester Bob Downe and Cabaret prodigy Eddie Perfect will make a cameo appearance by Satellite.

All of this plus an especially created troupe of sexy dancing boys and girls in the luxury of the State Theatre.
